

Awards Evening Nominations - 17th April - details on www.s40wg.org

We are looking for nominations for some of the awards. Where possible (or essential) please provide photos.

Walks from 1st Jan 2014 to 12th April 2015 are eligible, so get out your cameras, you still have some time...

1. Walk leader 'above and beyond' award
2. Best arranged stop on a walk (tea shops, pubs etc.) award
3. Most people led on a single walk - crowd management award
4. Least people led on a single walk - dedication award
5. Wettest walk - we are NOT a swimming club...
6. Muddiest walk - mud is for baths, not walks...
7. Most scenic walk - prettiest
8. Most scenic walk - most dramatic
9. Best photo - to be selected on the evening
10. Strangest photo from a walk - oh dear...
11. Best hat / costume - show-off award

Please send nominations in by 13th April 2015 at the latest.

Seahouses

There are 5 remaining places in the bunkhouse - male or female. Details at www.s40wg.org/socials.php5

Navigation Days

Clair Wilson has planned a practice Navigation day on 25th April from Barber Booth, Edale and then her friend is leading a planned walk from Crowden on 26th April. Navigation will feature greatly on both days.

If you are interested, please email Clair : gobbyduck@hotmail.com for further details.

Upcoming Socials (details on website, www.s40wg.org)

1st and 2nd May - Philadelphia Beer & Blues Festival - Presented by Sax Bob at C.A.D.S., Snowlane Entrance, Shalesmoor, S3 7AL. Some of us will be attending the festival on the Friday and Saturday - please text 07795 203 867 to let us know you are coming.

Walking Events

25th April - Friends of the Peak District Walks - There will be a choice of four magnificent walks in the Hope Valley and Edale, ranging from a family-friendly four-mile ramble, through 9 or 14 milers, to the full iconic 20-mile Edale skyline. Details and registration form: www.friendsofthepeak.org.uk. Raj intends to do the 20 mile walk and will be happy to walk with anybody who wishes to do the same.

9-17 May - Chesterfield Walking Festival - A week of walks from 2 to 34 miles. 10th May is the 10th anniversary of the Chesterfield round walk - full distance is 34 miles at quite a speed but you can just do part of it. More details: Chesterfield Walking Festival

Ramblers News

Coastal Path update - Walkers are one step closer to being able to enjoy greater access to the coast of England as Natural England publish their timetable to create a new National Trail - the England Coast Path - by 2020 - more details

Ramblers has published a revised set of Governance Proposals. You can read more about them here: more details

Happy Walking,

Your Committee

To unsubscribe from Sheffield 40s Walking Group emails, please send an email to swg40s@hotmail.co.uk requesting removal.